Investor and Analyst Meetings

Arçelik A.Ş. has set up a Shareholder Relations Unit which is responsible for handling relations with both existing and potential shareholders, responding to investors' questions as satisfactorily as possible and managing efforts to enhance the company's value. The Shareholder Relations Unit reports to the Assistant General Manager of Finance and Accounting.

Company's Top Managers and the Shareholder Relations Unit meet with intermediary institutions, analysts and investors regularly in order to communicate operational and financial performance, vision, strategy and goals of Arçelik A.Ş. as effectively as possible and to deliver presentations, Q&A and fact sheets. Any meeting requests from shareholders are responded to in a positive manner and shareholders are provided with the opportunity to meet with members of the company's top managers. Arçelik A.Ş. also allows its shareholders and analysts to keep themselves up-to-date with the latest developments about the company through its regularly-updated corporate website and memorandums, which are delivered to the shareholders via the Internet.

In order to strengthen shareholder relations, the company participates in local and international investor meetings. Both in these meetings and local meetings, which are held at the company's headquarters, company management meets with investors and answer their questions.

Arçelik A.Ş. also organizes teleconferences and delivers investor presentations following the disclosure of financial statements and material event disclosures. Details of these disclosures are shared with the public on the company's website.

Explanations Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

On April 24th 2014 Arçelik A.Ş. Board of Directors decided to authorize General Manager and Assistant General Manager, Finance and Accounting, separately to grant written approval for "forward-looking assessments" according to article 10 of Communiqué on Material Events , numbered II-15.1 which was published by Capital Markets Board.

Forward-looking assessments shall be disclosed in accordance with the following principles:

- a) Forward-looking assessments and fundamental assumptions, taken as basis for these forward-looking assessments may be disclosed maximum four times in a year following the public disclosure of financial statements published on quarterly basis as principle.
- b) Disclosure shall be made through investor presentation published on Public Disclosure Platform and Company's corporate website and/or activity report prepared on quarterly basis.
- c) In case of significant changes in assessment disclosed to public, if the estimations and grounds included in forward-looking information disclosed to public do not come true or are understood not to come true, a material event explanation shall be made without being subject to any number limitation and changes in expectation shall be shared with investors.

d) In case of a considerable difference between the expectations previously disclosed to public and the realizations, in explanations to be made concerning forward-looking assessments reasons for these differences shall be included.

e) Without any limitation, developments expected in the market, turnover and sales number growth estimations, profitability ratios, investment plans and information on new product shall be included in forward-looking assessment.

News and Rumors about the Company

Arçelik A.Ş. monitors company-related news in both visual and print media through a contracted domestic media-monitoring agency. Company-related coverage is delivered in report format to the desks of top managers every morning and contents of the coverage are checked for accuracy. In addition, senior managers, Shareholder Relations Unit and Corporate Communications Unit monitor local and international news coverage using the services provided by data distribution organizations such as Reuters, Bloomberg and IBS.

If Arçelik A.Ş. wishes to make an announcement about any coverage or rumors about the company that is found in the press but that does not oblige the company to make a material event disclosure, the matter may be added to the company's agenda by the Assistant General Manager of Finance and Accounting and a material event disclosure may be made.

If the news is not considered as important as inside information, the company does not make any material event disclosure. However, it is the prerogative of the Corporate Communications Unit to decide whether there is any benefit in making a material event disclosure on a subject that does not impose any obligation on the company to make such a disclosure according to the CMB Communiqué.

False News and Rumors

As a matter of principle, Arçelik A.Ş. does not comment on any news which is not issued by the company or that appears to be gossip, rumor and/or false. However, a statement may be made for this kind of rumors if deemed necessary to protect the benefits of Arçelik A.Ş. and its investors.

News Regarding the Information Postponed for Disclosure

If Arçelik A.Ş. has postponed the disclosure of inside information with the purpose of protecting the confidentiality of said information and preventing damage to its legitimate interests, and there is still news appearing in the media on the matter, then, as a matter of principle, Arçelik A.Ş. does not comment. However, Arçelik A.Ş. reserves the right to make an announcement in order to protect the interests of the company and its investors.

During the period of postponement, no further comments are made and no statements contradicting such news are issued. It may be expressed that no further information will be provided on the process and that the public will be informed when the situation is clarified.

Measures for the Protection of Inside Information until Public Disclosure

Other parties who are in relationships with the employees of Arçelik A.Ş. having access to inside information, during the emergence of a situation where a material event disclosure has to be made and within the period of time from the emergence of that situation until the disclosure made to ISE, are informed of their obligation for protecting the privacy of such information.

As a general principle, Arçelik A.Ş. and persons who work for and on behalf of Arçelik A.Ş. under any circumstances shall not disclose any information that can be considered as a material event and that is not yet disclosed to the public, to any third parties. If it is determined that inside information has been disclosed by these people to any third parties unintentionally and it is concluded that the confidentiality of the information cannot be protected, and then a material event disclosure is made in accordance with the rules and regulations of the CMB.

If the public disclosure of such information is postponed, a list is drawn up that includes the names of those individuals who have access to the information at the time of postponement, and "Arçelik's List of Persons Having Access to Inside Information" is updated accordingly. The necessary work is performed to inform both these persons and the other parties accessing to the inside information, and reasonable measures are taken.

Criteria Used to Determine People with Administrative Responsibility

Administrative staff who are privy to inside information are determined according to the scope of the information to which they have access. Accordingly, managers and employees who are privy to detailed information about only a certain portion of the company's business activities shall not be considered as people who have access to inside information.

However, Board Members, General Manager and Assistant General Managers who have detailed information about entire company and not only the current but also the future plans of the company and some top managers who mostly work at the headquarters, are considered as the personnel who have access to inside information. The list prepared based on this criteria is disclosed to the public in accordance with the provisions of the relevant communiqués issued by the CMB.

Ensuring Confidentiality of Information Subject to Public Disclosure

In maintaining the balance between providing transparency and protecting the interests of the company, employees are urged to follow the rules regarding the use of inside information. All the necessary measures and precautions are taken for the prevention of insider trading.

The “Principles of Business Ethics”, which are published across the company, clearly outline the code of conduct expected of Arçelik A.Ş. employees.

Any company-owned information obtained during the course of employment and which the company does not want to be disclosed to any third parties except those who are intended to receive the information, and which are designated as trade secret, is considered as “Company Proprietary Information.” All employees are under obligation to protect company proprietary information during and after their employment at Arçelik A.Ş. and may not use any such information directly or indirectly. The employees of Arçelik A.Ş. may not engage in any activity which would allow them to gain personal benefit by purchasing and selling Arçelik A.Ş. shares or those issued by any other Koç Group company, using the inside information they have become privy to during the course of their employment.

Arçelik imposes a “Silent Period” a period of time during which company representatives avoid sharing any information subject to public disclosure before an official announcement regarding the financial results of the concerned accounting period. The Silent Period begins three weeks before the announcement of year-end results and two weeks before the announcement of the quarterly results.
