
Arçelik

Energy Policy

Arçelik and its employees comply with all applicable national and international energy-related laws and regulations, continue our activities in line with energy management system based on continuous improvement by procuring essential sources.

- use energy and natural resources efficiently for the products and the activities
- prefer energy efficient technologies and applications for the production and the activities
- be a model to industry as 'the most efficient products' manufacturer
- prefer products and services that were generated in energy efficiency manner for the production and the activities
- raise awareness of our employees and the society about energy efficiency and use of natural sources.

accompanying the Quality, Environmental, Health and Safety Management Systems and we strive to set a model in durable goods sector with regard to environmental efforts.